Problem/Solution Memo

MEMO

DATE: March 2, 2010

TO: Jesus

FROM: James Ullery

SUBJECT: INCREASING DEATHS WITH THE CONSUMPTION OF PEPSI

Jesus, ever since Pepsi had been created deaths now in the millions have occurred from its effects. I studied the deadly beverage and found possible causes for this to be happening. I have also come up with some possible solutions to stop the spread of such evil. Below are some problems and possible solutions.

Problems/Causes	Solutions
Pepsi has one of the most plain and boring can designs the world has ever seen.	Dispose of all Pepsi cans.
Pepsi is one of the stupidest names I or anyone has ever heard and the sound of it alone kills me a little inside.	Erase all knowledge of that name from existence.
Pepsi tastes extremely terrible and is almost like pure aspartame.	Drink Dr Pepper

Recommendations:

These solutions should stop the deaths of thousands around the world, take Obama out of office, and end world hunger. If additional problems occur, we'll probably need to form a strike force to assassinate all existing believers in Pepsi. Please let me know your decision by 3/8/2010 so we can take action before the end of all that is good is at hand.
