

Download File PDF Sample Questions Niit

#Jenny

Finally I get this ebook, thanks for all these I can get now!

#Rio

Cool! I'am really happy

#Markus Jensen

I did not think that this would work, my best friend showed me this website, and it does! I get my most wanted eBook wtf this great ebook for free?!

#Hun Tsu

#Che Salsa

My friends are so mad that they do not know how I have all the high quality ebook which they do not!

#Diego Butler

so many fake sites. this is the first one which worked! Many thanks

NIIT IMPERIA Program Aptitude Test (PAT) - Illustrative Questions

SECTION I

25 Questions
30 Marks
[5 mark each]

Directions for Questions 1-11: Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

- L1 The view that the social sciences are not culturally specific is called social scientific reductionism.
- L2 In a social scientific reductionist view, the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application.
- L3 In a social scientific reductionist view, the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application.
- L4 Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific.
- L5 The relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application.
- L6 Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific.
- L7 The relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application.
- L8 Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific.
- L9 The relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application.
- L10 Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific.
- L11 Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific.

Question 1: The primary purpose of the passage is to

- Options: (A) compare a technique of social science (B) introduce a view of arguing (C) analyze a technique (D) introduce a concept

Question 2: It can be inferred that the author believes which of the following about "reduction in the social sciences"?

- Options: (A) It is not a reduction in the social sciences (B) It is not a reduction in the social sciences (C) It is not a reduction in the social sciences (D) It is not a reduction in the social sciences

Question 3: It can be inferred from the passage that those who do not favor the "reductionist" view believe that

- Options: (A) social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 4: The author of the passage is concerned with asserting that

- Options: (A) the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application (B) the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application (C) the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application (D) the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences is that of a method and its application

Question 5: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 6: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 7: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 8: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 9: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 10: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

Question 11: The author of the passage is most likely to agree with which of the following statements?

- Options: (A) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (B) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (C) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific (D) Social scientific reductionism is a view that the social sciences are not culturally specific

[Download PDF version of :
Sample Questions Niit](#)